Goals...

It must be borne in the mind that the tragedy of life doesn't lie in not reaching your goal. The tragedy lies in having no goal to reach. It isn't calamity to die with dreams unfulfilled, but it is a calamity not to dream. It is not a disaster to be unable to capture your ideal, but it is a disaster to have no ideal to capture. It is not a disgrace not to reach the stars, but it is a disgrace to have no stars to reach for. Not failure, but low aim is sin.

There is a Chinese proverb that drives home this point: "A man who says it cannot be done should not interrupt the man doing it."

There will always be those who are ready to speak persuasively about the utter impossibilities of your achievement or the minuscule chances of your success as you venture forth. Consider their words, if you must, then proceed to go your own way. Listen instead to the inner rhythms of the music within your soul!
