Ten Things Every Woman Must Possess

“A powerful look at who we are and what it takes to live life’s best!”

This audio tape is a must have item for your personal library; share with a friend, get a copy for your girlfriends, mother and other associates...

You will laughter together;
Understand your personal responsibility more with clarity;
and do something about where you are now!

A brief highlight:

One will discover the most fatal mistake all women have made...

One will often feel the need to rearrange their lifestyle immediately to accommodate that, which is new and unproven – many times without heeding to sirens of caution to slow down (develop and understand the person with whom you’ve chosen to engage a relationship). Sometimes many of us have made numerous unsolicited sacrifices (that which was never requested or expected), which results in diversion after diversion and finally brokenness, bitterness and emptiness, all because we did not adhere to our best friend “Caution”... it doesn’t always mean no (complete denial or defeat), but perhaps take it slow!
